

ABOUT THE ARTIST

What do Tony and two time Grammy Award winner Jennifer Holliday, Grammy Award winner Gloria Gaynor, Jazz Icon Phil Perry, R&B star Bobby V, and Pop Phenom Justin Bieber all have in common? They've been fortunate to have worked with soulful songstress Latrese Bush. Her melodic vocal range has supported these and many other musical greats! When she's not traveling the world with Gloria Gaynor performing the iconic hit "I Will Survive", Latrese can be found singing at various venues, songwriting and making music. Latrese recently lent her mezzo soprano to the legendary funk group The BarKays for their soulful R&B ballad "Up and Down". She can also be heard as a featured vocalist on trumpeter Joey Sommerville's jazz album "Ride To This" and his newest releases "Like You Mean It" and "The Get Down Club" and Bob Baldwin's single "Turn The Club Up" on his latest Top 5 Billboard Jazz Album "Twenty". Her new single, "Because of You," featuring soul and R&B star, Noel Gourdin, is topping the UK Soul Chart and is sure to be a new anthem for lovers across the globe.

A songwriter and southern belle with a professional resume that most newbies could only dream of, Latrese Bush has cultivated her performance skills and sparkling soprano on stages around the world.

- SoulTracks

In the midst of this fast paced human experience, real authentic heart connections can sometimes be lost through instant messages. This is the kind of song that takes you back to love expressed through a letter sent by mail. This is a feel-good theme song for lovers.

- Singersroom

Following up on the messages originally expressed in her debut EP, "The Best", Latrese conveys love through a melodic conversation backed by a gorgeous production. She says that "Love will never fail & I will always sing about its power".
